

WHOSE STANDARD?

We are Christians.

We're thankful that we live and can raise our family in a country where we are free to worship God as we believe. However, we're being told that there's a cultural war in America over the human rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people. Certain religious fundamentalist groups believe that supporting equal rights for our gay and lesbian friends somehow doesn't measure up to God's standard.

We remember when the Bible was used by people who supported slavery and those who opposed full and equal rights for women and other minorities.

Christ teaches us to love and respect everyone, regardless of differences.

That's the standard we want to instill in our children.
